Cip Code: 39.0699

MA in Pastoral Studies (M.A.P.S.)

www.ai.edu

48Credit Hour degree

314.256.8800

- o $660^ per Credit Hour ($31,680^ for total per credit hour fee {48hours})
- o $195 per semester for student fees
- o $125* per course (books/supplies)
- When the student completes the MAPS Degree, s/he will be able to:
 - o demonstrate an understanding of major theological, liturgical, and pastoral themes in Catholic theology through effective communication in classroom and pastoral settings;
 - o demonstrate an ability to analyze major magisterial, theological, and ritual texts useful in the graduate's area of focused study;
 - o demonstrate an ability to analyze the various religious and social contexts at work in the graduate's specific pastoral setting;
 - demonstrate, among peers and among members of the communities the graduate serves, the ability to reflect theologically, bringing into conversation the challenges of pastoral ministry, the social context and the wisdom of the tradition;
 - demonstrate among peers and among members of the communities the graduate serves, the personal and professional maturity needed to effectively collaborate with others in ministry;
 - o articulate a theology of ministry which is both faithful to the Catholic tradition and sensitive to the unique needs and challenges of the communities they serve;
 - o demonstrate competence in a particular ministerial area through focused study in that area.
- In the years 2001, 2012, and 2013, 11 total students graduated from the MAPS program
 - 3 took an average of 18 credit hours or more per a year and completed their degree in an average of 2.8 years.
 - 8 took an average of less than 18 credit hours per a year and completed their degree in an average of 4.3 years.
- Occupations
 - Clergy and Lay Ecclesial Ministers
 - Secondary Teachers
 - o Religious Workers, All Others

[^] Tuition per credit hour is subject to change

^{*}Estimated

^{}Student Fees are subject to change

[#]School does not offer Room and Board