Lay Formation V and VI

Course Description: These semesters will focus on particular needs of students in terms of deepening spirituality, ongoing discernment, challenges and concerns of ministry. The size and tasks of the group will vary, depending on the current number of students pursuing the M.Div. who have completed Formation IV. Seminars, directed readings, individual retreat experiences will be the format, adjusted to the size and needs of the group and individuals. Ongoing review and development of spiritual and ministerial goals focused on ministry or work beyond Aquinas will continue throughout Formation V and VI.
