

CERTIFICATION FOR THE USCCB'S BUILDING INTERCULTURAL COMPETENCE FOR MINISTERS (BICM)

JOIN US FOR AN INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP ON THE CHURCH'S IDENTITY AND ITS FULL MISSION TO EVANGELIZE.

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM PARTICIPATING IN THIS WORKSHOP?

Anyone who serves in parishes, churches, schools, religious and community organizations, educational facilities, and public service.

TRAINING INCLUDES:

Practical and interactive approaches to intercultural competence using the 5 guidelines recommended by the USCCB Committee on Cultural Diversity in the Church:

- Issues of diversity and the Church's mission to evangelize
- An understanding of culture
- Intercultural communication skills that deal with varying perceptions in pastoral settings
- Understanding obstacles in how we view those different than us
- Acting upon a spirituality of ecclesial integration and inclusion in diverse parish settings

Refreshments and lunch are provided each day.

Each participant will receive a BICM training manual and a Certificate of Completion after attending the two-day workshop. A one-day overview workshop is also available, although certification will not be awarded for the one-day workshop.

For more information and dates of upcoming workshops, call 314.256.8000 or email bicminfo@ai.edu.

